9. Shortlisted student candidates may be asked to provide supporting materials including research documentation, references or other materials.
10. Shortlisted candidates have to seek permission from their PhD supervisor to attend the programme.
11. Applicants should contact the Conception X team in regards to any questions they may have about the application process.

How to apply

1. All applications are to be submitted online here.
2. Please note you will be asked to register an account via the online tool, in order to submit your application form.
3. A guided 3 step application process leads you easily through the application form, allowing you to double-check, save along the way, and return to your application form multiple times before submitting it.
4. Once submitted, you will receive a confirmation email, and a final version of your application will automatically be sent to Conception X team.

If you experience any problems with the online application process, please contact us as soon as possible: Olivia Ash, Programme & Events Coordinator, olivia@conceptionx.org.
